County Tax Rate May Go Up, Taxpayer Says

Supervisor Denies That Big Budget Will Cost More

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A prediction that the county would have to boost its tax rate 10 cents, to $2.08, to meet the record-breaking budget of $79,005,021 now under consideration was denied Monday by the County Board of Supervisors.

R. C. Grable, president of the San Diego Taxpayers Assn., made the prediction, and Board Chairman Frank A. Gibson offered to make a bet with Grable that he was wrong.

Supervisor David W. Bird started to say the tax rate would go down instead of up, but he changed his mind before he had completed his sentence.

Grable was the first to speak at the Monday morning hearing on the budget. Public hearings will continue until all who want to be heard have had a chance to speak.

Grable asked the board to reduce its amount for capital projects from $250,000 to $200,000. He also asked elimination of $73,500 for a branch operations center for public works. Opposition to the school lunch program, a home-maker service, health insurance for employes and added funds for the city-county camps also were voiced.

Mrs. Lucy Martin and Mrs. Jo Poland, of the Mountain Valley Taxpayers Assn., also asked the board to hold down expenses.

Mrs. A. L. Childs and Mrs. Betty Gollitzer, representing the Women's Civic Club of Solana Beach, asked for county aid for the community building. They said their group had voted to contribute $1,000 toward the cost of the project. The board indicated that help for the Solana Beach community building would set a precedent that would make it impossible to deny requests from other areas.

The $79,005,021 budget compared with $70,803, 848 for the current year. It is the budget recommended by T. M. Heggland, administrative head.

Salary boosts for county employes raised the budget by $1,623,274, Heggland's recommendation report shows. The departments showing the biggest salary increases were the sheriff's department, $200,735; public works, $148,132; welfare $245,232, and hospital, $164,971.

Left out of the budget, as Heggland is recommending it, are any provisions for implementing the Short-Doyle Act, for aid for mentally disturbed persons; the anti-litter campaign; electronic vote-counting, and the school lunch program. Additional funds are being asked, new since the preliminary budget, for expansion of

Tax Rate Cut Recommended At Hospital

If the County Board of Supervisors approves, the tax rate for residents of Grossmont Hospital District will be cut to 10 cents per $100 valuation this year.

The rate last year was 18 cents.

The tax rate cut was recommended last week by the board of directors of the hospital district.

Louis M. Peelyon, hospital administrator, said the board recommended that "the request for maintenance and operating tax assessment be reduced to cover the amount necessary for the operation of the new expanded facility for 1960-61."

The board met at the hospital Wednesday night, R. Marvin Jackson is board president.

The board estimated there should be a saving of at least eight cents per $100 valuation compared with last year's tax rate.

In addition to the operation and maintenance assessment, there is an assessment for bond interest and redemption.

This probably will remain at the present level of 4 cents.

The hospital board will submit the estimated budget to the county Board of Supervisors. The board sets the tax rate.

The hospital board approved the estimated budget at Wednesday's meeting.

Estimated expenses for the year will be $2,848,620. This was based, Peelyon said, on total increase in capacity. A 75 per cent occupancy was presumed. Occupancy for more than two years in the past has been 90 and 93 per cent.

The hospital now has 111 beds and will have 245 available with the opening of the new wing. The wing will be dedicated Aug. 15, the fifth anniversary of the hospital's opening.

Estimated gross income is $2,938,920, less the district rate differential, which is $2 per day on any room occupied by a resident of the district.

This differential is expected to cut $90,000 from the hospital's income for the year, making the expected net income $2,848,620, Peelyon said.

Contract Let For Highlands

C. F. Von Gunden, San Diego contractor, has been awarded the contract to construct the new Highlands Elementary School on South Barcelona St in Spring Valley.

The contract was awarded June 14 by the LM-SV School Dist. board of trustees, after Von Gunden's bid of $466,000 was opened. The bid was $85,000 under the state allowance, according to Dr. M. Ted Dixon associate superintendent of the LM-SV School Dist. There were six other bids.

Work on the new school is to start immediately, Dr. Dixon said, and is expected to be completed by Christmas. It will be a complete school, with 16 classrooms, two kindergartens a multi-purpose room and of

Four Groups Meet, Name Committee To Chart Course

Another Meeting Set for July 18 To Hear Report

Thirty four members of the Lemon Grove community this week launched a four-pronged attack on the area's lack of recreational facilities.

It was a four-pronged attack because at the time nobody could come up with a widely-accepted suggestion as to what the community needs most in the way of such facilities, and how it might obtain them.

The most widely-suggested versions were: 1) a new youth center—proposed by Frank Armstrong, president of the Youth Center board; 2) a swimming pool—proposed by Frank Doolin, president of the Swimming Pool Assn.; 3) establishment of a special recreation commission by joint action of the school board and the county board of supervisors—proposed by Warren Buckner, member of the school board; and 4) conversion of the 4-acre county property at Washington and Alton streets into a "green spot" park instead of any other kind of recreational area—proposed by Cletus (Biff) Gardner, county parks and recreation director.

The proposals came at a joint meeting of the Taxpayers Assn., the Swimming Pool Assn., the Youth Center board and the Coordinating Council. There were 34 people present, including a panel of five men whose duty it was to explain the functions of the participating organizations.

After a lengthy meeting at which nobody appeared to be absolutely certain that they would ever accomplish anything, someone in the audience remarked that the whole meeting seemed "a little silly, with us all pulling in different directions."

Mrs. Florence Tamila, secretary of the taxpayers assn., arose and pointed out that her organization had started out the same way "but we learned to work together and solve all of our problems to the benefit of the whole organization" and said that the group meeting jointly could do the same thing.

C. H. (Les) Benson, erstwhile president of the taxpayers, was not present, having resigned a couple of weeks ago because the rest of the organization's executive board wouldn't agree with his policies—which brought the taxpayers association almost into agreement with the coordinating council a couple of months ago—for the first time since the inception of the two groups.

At the joint meeting of the four groups, held Monday night at the junior high school, the 34 people present voted to name a committee to "recommend a procedure for future community action on recreation." The committee is to make a report at a joint meeting of the groups on July 18.

On the committee are E. Walter Smith, president of the Coordinating Council (who probably will be replaced by some other member of the council, since he is on vacation); Armstrong, for the Youth Center; Doolin, for the Swimming Pool Assn.; Ray Carson, for organized youth baseball; Amos Clay, for the Taxpayers; and one other representative from each organization.

They are to meet Monday night at the home of Mrs. James Martin, vice president of the Coordinating Council, who presided at last Monday's meeting.

Many an auto manufacturer is taking bows for helping to sell the small-car philosophy to the American public. They point out that this has boosted auto sales which, in turn, helps the national economy. Additionally, they point out, it has stemmed the avalanches of imports.

These may be the results, but the auto industry had nothing to do with the cause. The cause is taxation. . .gasoline tax to be precise.

And what is being gained back in auto taxes (and the Lord knows these are manifold) we'll be losing, several times over, in gasoline taxes. Here's why:

A tax can reach a point of diminishing return by becoming so excessive that it produces less and less revenue, thus defeating its purpose. This may be true of the gasoline tax. Gasoline suffered 62 separate state tax increases during the past six years, plus a federal increase from 1.4 cents to 4 cents a gallon. In all, this jump totaled more than 40 per cent.

The average taxpayer doesn't separate the tax from the actual cost price of a product. To him, the pump price is what he pays, and he feels this price is too high, so he was forced to seek cars which consumed less fuel.

Thus, into American consciousness sprang the "compact" car which is the consumer's revolt against higher gasoline costs. These new cars are accounting for 25 per cent of this year's domestic car production. In addition, there will be about two million small, foreign cars in this country by the end of the year.

This trend has led to the prediction by the National Gasoline Association that by 1964 annual gasoline sales will be 4,500,000,000 gallons less than it would be if compacts were not in the picture. What that will do to gasoline tax revenue to government is certainly obvious. Probably the government's answer to the tax loss question will be answered by increasing the tax on compact autos. A toll charge for the use of the nation's roads is another potential.

There will be no giving up of taxes that our bureaus have become accustomed to living with.

Anyway you look at it the motoring public will be taxed all the charges traffic will bear. . .a sad outlook for a nation born to four wheels and gas-guzzling engines.

One of the more amusing yarns concerning San Diego schools appears in the current issue of Report Card, a publication of the California Teachers Association.

It reports that Hale junior high school, in San Diego, ordered six new freezers recently for the school's cafeteria. The freezers were equipped with three-prong electrical plugs. Wall receptacles in the cafeteria were designed for two-prong plugs.

Soon, two electricians invaded the otherwise well organized school to put things right. One changed the plugs to the two-prong type.

The other changed the receptacles to three prongs.

Daylight Burglar Gets $760 from Lemon Grove Drug

A man who said that he was looking for his father either in the drug store or in the barber shop behind it is being sought as a suspect in a $760 daylight burglary of Lemon Grove Rexall drug store.

John Burris, owner of the drug store, told deputy sheriffs that a man was in the drug store Saturday looking for his father. The man went out the back door of the drug store to look in the barber shop next door, Burris said.

After several such trips, Burris said, the man did not come back any more.

And shortly afterward Burris discovered that a sack containing $760 in cash and checks had disappeared from the safe, in a small room near the back door.

Juvenile Traffic Clinic Urges Continued Driver Training Plan

A special juvenile traffic clinic has urged that the driver training program in the county's high schools be expanded.

The clinic also urged that the program not be considered a "frill."

The staff of the county's juvenile traffic court participated in the clinic and agreed with a resolution that the activities of the court be further publicised and that legislation be enacted to strengthen the legal position of the "referee" system of handling juvenile traffic offenders.

Under the system, the court can simply "counsel" offenders or can restrict driving privileges for violations of the law.

Bernard S. Schwartz, referee in the court, said that a poll was conducted among students in 16 county high schools.

The poll, he said, showed that 54 per cent of the sophomore, junior and senior students have driver's licenses or permits.

The study revealed that approximately 31 per cent of the sophomores had licenses, and in that group 24 per cent had behind-the-wheel driver training. For high school seniors, the percentage jumped to 78 per cent with licenses or permits, and 60 per cent with driver training.

The juvenile traffic court during May processed a total of 986 individuals with a total number of 1,101 citations. The citations represented a total of 1,292 separate code violations, of which 950 were hazardous violations, including 99 which were bicycle and pedestrian violations.

Hazardous operation of vehicles was the largest single violation group. The largest group of non-hazardous violations was for license offenses. Of the 986 individuals seen, 879 were boys, 107 girls. Sixty-three wards of the court were seen. Eighty military personnel and 83 residents of other jurisdictions were transferred.

Age distribution of juvenile traffic offenders: 14 years of age and under, 112; 15 years of age was 63; there were 283 16-year-olds of which 15 were injury and 30 property damage. Eighty-two per cent of the 474 individuals cited for hazardous operation of vehicles were handled by some method other than counseling, primarily loss of driving privilege.

A total of 1,058 citations were received during the month of May from the enforcement agencies of San Diego County, as follows: San Diego, 755; La Mesa, 48; El Cajon, 33; National City, 17; Chula Vista, 35; Imperial Beach, 17; Coronado, 3; Oceanside, 13; Carlsbad, 1; Escondido, 19; Highway Patrol, 102; Sheriff, 2; other jurisdictions, 13.

Supervisors OK Fly Control Ordinance

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Preparation of a county fly-control ordinance has been ordered by the County Board of Supervisors.

T. M. Heggland, county chief administrative officer, said that the intent of the ordinance is to control fly breeding where flies "significantly affect the health of the population."

Complaints are to be sent to the health department and are to be kept on record, to be available to the public. The department is to investigate complaints and give written notice to offenders to take required action to stop the nuisance within seven days.

The premises of an offender are to be inspected again in seven days, and a second notice is to be sent if the flybreeding condition still exists. This time the operator of the nuisance will be ordered to remove all "organic material" every seven days, and the premises are to be inspected every seven days for six months, unless the order is rescinded.

Failure to comply is to result in prosecution for contempt, with a penalty of a fine of not more than $500 or a jail term of not more than six months, or both.

A person receiving the second notice should have a chance to appeal for a hearing, if the appeal is made three days after the notice is received.

Fred Closson had lived in San Diego County 10 years and was a retired apartment house manager. He is survived by a son, Fred I. Closson of Spring Valley; one grandchild and one great-grandchild.

Once Over Lightly

Well, I'm back.

My experiment was phenomenally unsuccessful.

I deliberately didn't write a column last week, expecting that the office would be flooded with letters from irate readers, demanding that the column reappear.

This, I figured, would so impress the boss that his conscience would bother him at the way that he has been under-paying such a valuable and popular columnist. Then, I figured, the only decent thing for him to do would be to give me a raise.

Well, I didn't write a column.

As far as I can tell, only one person in town noticed it.

"Where was your column this week?" Dr. Robert Conlin asked.

"I didn't write one," I said.

"Oh," he said.

Thinking to stir up something, I told Maybelle, our front-office gal: "I didn't write a column this week."

Colin McKay, one of our advertising salesmen, overheard.

"Finally took my advice," he said.

I will have to admit that my wife, Paula, is aware that I didn't write a column. But she's aware of it mostly because I told her ahead of time that I wasn't going to write one.

"Why not?" she asked.

"I want to see the reaction of my public," I said.

"That's pretty stupid," she said.

Now all I can do is hope that the boss doesn't know that I didn't write a column and that my dereliction did not get any reaction.

He might decide that anybody as ineffectual as that should have his salary cut.

Swim Lessons Available

There are several openings in the "Learn to Swim" campaign given by the La Mesa Recreation-Park Dept., according to a recent report by Tony Kozlowski, pool supervisor. Next sign-up times will be July 11 and Aug. 8, at the pool, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The first session is being held from June 21 through July 15; the second session, July 19 through Aug. 12; and the third session, Aug. 16 through Sept. 9. The sessions will be held each Tuesday, Thursday, Wednesday and Friday. There is no charge for lessons, the report stated.

Grove Mens' Club To 'Stir Up Something' Here

The Lemon Grove Men's Club, harrassed by a dwindling attendance, set out Friday to "stir something up" in the community.

Two possible "somethings" include launching a drive to incorporate the business district of Lemon Grove, and/or to form a town council which would become the community's official spokesman at such places as the County Board of Supervisors.

A series of discussions on possible government for the community started out with room-filling attendances, then dwindled off to embarrassingly small audiences for the speakers.

Speakers ran through proposals for annexing to San Diego, annexing to La Mesa and incorporating as a city. The first of these meetings even drew interested women from the community—a novelty for the normally exclusively male meetings. But as the series progressed, the women stopped coming—and so did the members of the Men's Club.

Last Friday's meeting drew eight members.

On a motion by Tony Sonka club president Bill Davies is to revive his program committee "and stir something up."

A report on what that "something" is to be is due at this Friday's meeting.

A modern vacation leaves a man unable to work effectively for at least a week thereafter.

ident's visit to Japan is a signal victory for world communism.

Following closely on the heels of the U-2 debacle; the collapse of the summit meeting; the Adnan Menderes revolt; the overthrow of the Sigman Rhee government; Fidel Castro's insolence to all Americans, and the renewed attacks on Formosa, the Japanese incident should become a point where Americans should demand to be counted standing up.

A national magazine, LIFE, proposed just that. It suggests that newspapers define National Purpose in their editorial columns. The PTAs and other groups and clubs are asked to set National Purpose meetings and help give guidance to our leaders. Shockingly, this is simply another way of saying that our leaders don't know where they are leading us. So many of their actions are labeled "secret" or "classified" that it prevents the average American from knowing what's going on, or indeed, why.

Be that as it may, this column has some succinct thoughts on the idea of National Purpose. They could all be grouped under the general heading of Human Dignity, for all, and Respect For Qualified Americans. Let's unfold some of this philosophy:

Starting with the Japanese affair. The President shouldn't have called off the Japanese visit. He should have called out the Marines, a medium sized company would have sufficed . . . and used them to knock the heads of the leaders of the communist - inspired Japanese students. Most of these students owe their education to the largess of the American taxpayer which proves the billions of dollars of so-called foreign aid buys us neither friendship nor loyalty.

Some of the students argued that the revolt was a defense against war . . . war that would be the natural outcome of the Japanese-American security pact. This is further proof that our money is not only wasted but is used against us by mis-educating these youngsters. If war is to come from such acts as mutual security agreements between nations of the free world, it will come quicker for having backed down in Japan or relinquishing our position in Berlin.

The problem arises from our Polly Anna-ish reaction to world antagonists. We held back our force in the final stages of WWII and restricted our action in Korea as cases in point. No wonder Castro and Khrushchev are certain they can get away with it now!

The President's answer to K should have been, "Hell, yes, we've been flying U-2s over Russia for four years and we're going to continue it until there is some indication the world can live in peace."

Our answer to Red China for re-attacking Formosa should be the nitrogen warhead. Marines, fewer than those needed for Japan, could be dropped off in Cuba to re-acquire American property unlawfully taken by Castro.

Then, for the first time in modern history, world trouble makers would have the rules by which the game is played.

Regaining our dignity and respect (incidentally, we didn't give permission to our leaders to toss it away) simply by stiffening our backbone will lift the unrest we have from living in an era of un-war.

It might also permit some of the countries we are supporting to learn to like us . . . and that would be a change.

The Mail Box

Editor:

Brick-bats and boos to the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District echo from letters to the editors of the local newspapers.

I cannot believe that all of the parents of the 11,000 children in this 24 square mile district are dissatisfied with the Board of Trustees and the administration.

Couldn't it just be possible that parents, still wanting the best educational program for their child and all children, upon looking over their personal budget, have found that we will have to stretch what we have until economic conditions get a little better? Or that parents living in the more settled areas, who have fought for years to get away from double sessions and to achieve an educational curriculum that fitted the needs of their children, voted "no" because they felt they could not afford to subsidize schools in new subdivisions? They ask, "Wouldn't we have had enough money to carry us through the projected growth for five years (as voted and passed at the last override election) if these new people hadn't arrived?"

Isn't it possible that newcomers knowingly voted "no" even if their children have to walk to school and go on double session because, with the cost of living, a new home, and insecurity of jobs, they feel they can't afford any more taxes?

Come on parents—let your school trustees and your administrators, know that you weren't trying to kick their teeth in or slap their wrists by voting "no", but that you are putting off buying a second car and are wearing last year's bathing suit and broiling hamburger instead of steak this year. All we want them to do is what we are doing at home—tightening up.

Don't let a few vociferous, selfish individuals give your school trustees a one sided picture.

Rosarie Graham

Dear Editor:

I wonder if you would print this in your newspaper, please? Thank you.

The yarn that has been given to me for Boys Town, Nebr., and St. Joseph's Indian School in South Dakota, is almost gone and I shall be forced to give up the work I love so much. . .knitting for children . . .unless your kind-hearted readers come to my rescue with donations of yarn. Old and new yarn, any color, size and any amount will be very much appreciated.

Any article that can be raveled out will be most welcome, also. I would like to get the wooden spools that thread comes on, for a man that has arthritis in his spine. He makes knick-knack shelves and sells them to support his family. Any color, size or amount of spools will be appreciated, as he can use them all.

May God bless you and your readers, each and every day.

Sincerely,
Florence M. Nichols,
Box 55, Marlow, N.H.

Arthur J. Long

A. J. Long Named School Trustee

Arthur J. Long, a Lemon Grove business man, has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of Barney Ambrose, on the Lemon Grove school board. He will be required to stand for office in May 1961.

Ambrose resigned two months ago because of consideration of health. The new appointment was announced by the San Diego County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Cecil Hardesty. The appointment was made from a list of four prospects, all of whom were said to be "excellent school board material."

Long, popularly called "A.J.", operates the Wholesale Gift and Glassware Distributing Co. at 3570 Olive St. in Lemon Grove. He lives at 8225 Golden Ave., with his wife Virginia, and three children. Mrs. Long is retiring president of the Golden Ave. PTA.

Long is known to thousands of San Diego children as the owner and operator of the Balboa Park Merry-Go-Round.

He will probably attend the school board meeting as a trustee for the first time in July.

County Tax Rate May Go Up, Taxpayer Says

the district attorney's family support investigators' staff, for another court in the South Bay District, for a personnel classification study and for an industrial development program.

Heggland also warned the board that the 1961-62 budget is going to be a heavy one, as will be those following. He said provisions have to be made for extensive expansion of facilities. Among the projects which must be considered he put an El Cajon Court addition, Vista branch buildings, an Encinitas branch building, an electronic vote-counting device, expansion of Civic Center, a new Operations Center and redemption of the bonds sold to build the new county hospital.

Hearings on the final budget will continue through the rest of the month. The board of supervisors will then sit as a board of equalization, beginning on the first Monday in July. The tax rate for the coming year must be set on or before Sept. 1.

VOTERS

Any voter who cares to change his party or who will have been at his present address for 54 days by Nov. 8, is eligible to register, says Mrs. Charlotta Phillips, deputy registrar of voters. Mrs. Phillips lives at 3546 Helix St., Spring Valley, phone HO 6-4209. Mrs. Phillips says there will be no one registering in the area stores until Aug. 1.

Christian Science

Universal availability of the healing and saving power of the Christ, Truth, will be a theme dealt with in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Christian Science" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

The account of Christ Jesus' healing of the woman "which had a spirit of infirmity 18 years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself" (Luke 13) will be included in the Bible readings. Luke records, "And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God" (13:12, 13).

Citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy state: "Truth casts out error now as surely as it did nineteen centuries ago. All of Truth is not understood; hence its healing power is not fully demonstrated."

LET US ALL PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY

"The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." I Cor. 1:18. It is not our community standing or self estimate that determines whether or not we are a child of God; it is our attitude toward the cross of Christ. What is your attitude?

Casa de Oro Baptist

The Casa de Oro Baptist's summer youth program will start Sunday evening for junior high through college age youth. The program is to be held each Sunday following the 7 p.m. services and will be held in the lower auditorium of the church.

There will be refreshments and fellowship and a Bible study of teenage interest, the subject being selected by the youth. First study will be on the Second Coming of Christ. Also there is to be a report on the Youth Conference, which was attended by several of the youth of the C.D.O. Baptist Church. Also on Friday of each week the youth will have time for sports, films, food and trips.

Several of the high school youth, accompanied by their sponsor, will go to Long Beach on Friday to attend the annual youth conference. A banquet will be held on Saturday.

The annual Vacation Bible school got under way on Monday. This year's theme, Indian Pow-Wow, is enhanced by a staff of 41 "Chiefs", with "Assistant Chiefs" and "Squaws" and "Braves." They will minister to four "Tribes of Indians", the Sioux, Cherokee, Apaches and Chippawas. A real 18-foot canoe in the foyer of the church not only adds interest but is being used to place gifts for real Indians of the Navajo and Chippawa Tribes. "Feast Squaws" are serving refreshments each day of the school, prepared in the "Hogan." The school continues through Friday (9 to 11:30 a.m.) with the closing demonstration program Friday evening at 7:30. All parents and friends are invited, says Rev. Ernest Anderson, pastor.

Rev. Donald Goldsmith, an American Conferenec missionary to Brazil, was present last Sunday night. He is on furlough after serving five years in South America. He was a visitor to Casa de Oro five years ago.

The Missions Committee will meet at 7:30, June 23, in the Fireside Room.

Dave Bartholomew, an active member of the Sr. High Fellowship, was recently elected Vice-Moderator of the San Diego District Westminster Fellowship Council.

Miss Robin Briscoe, active in our college-age youth group, plans to attend the national "United Conference" of United Campus Christian Fellowship to be held on the campus of Stephen's College in Columbia, Mo., August 25 to Sept. 1. Miss Briscoe is presently serving as president of this group at San Diego State College. Twenty-one delegates will attend from Southern California, only seven of whom will be "voting delegates". Methodist Church Promotes Rev. Cooke

The Rev. Mr. Donald B. Cooke, pastor of the Lemon Grove Methodist church for the past seven years, will leave Wednesday for a new assignment in North Long Beach.

His promotion was announced this week by Methodist Bishop Gerald Kennedy of Los Angeles.

Mr. Cooke, and his family of four, live at 3185 Washington St.

He will be replaced by Dr. Jordan Detzer, who has been pastor of the 1st Methodist church of Barstow for the past four years.

During the term of Mr. Cooke's service, his congregation has grown from 55 to more than 400. In 1953, members met in the sanctuary of the Lemon Grove First Baptist Church on Main St. Later, the L. G. Woman's Clubhouse served as the church. The present facility at Washington and Golden Aves. was built on land acquired in 1955 where a sanctuary, two Sunday school buildings and a parsonage have been built since.

During the seven years he served here, Mr. Cooke has been director of the Pastoral Counseling Service in S. D. county; district director of Christian Education of Methodist churches; president of the Homeland Pastors Association, and candidate for directorship of the Lemon Grove Recreation district. He was successful but the district failed to pass.

His family consists of his wife, Lois; Donna Ruth, Cheryl Ann, Laurie Jean and Jeffrey Peter, the couple's children.

The promotion makes Mr. Cooke pastor for 1,200 members of the North Long Beach Methodist church at 5600 Linden Ave. in Long Beach.

"This opportunity presents a great challenge. As much as we hate to leave Lemon Grove we know that we must serve where we can serve best," he said.

His final services in Lemon Grove will be conducted Sunday.

This is a good time to drive carefully, avoid risks and save lives on the highways.

Shakespeare Festival To Open at Old Globe

Ablaze with music and majesty, costumes and pageantry, the Eleventh National Shakespeare Festival will open July 5 at the Old Globe Theatre.

"Julius Caesar," directed by William Ball, opens the festival season. The plot to murder the Roman emperor, his assassination, and the escape and pursuit of the conspirators creates an excitingly dramatic evening in the Elizabethan theatre.

William Ball directed the award winning "Henry IV, Part 1" at the Old Globe Theatre Festival last summer. Just prior to his arrival in San Diego, Ball directed "The Tempest" at the American Shakespeare Festival, Stratford, Connecticut.

Following the opening of "Julius Caesar" July 5, he will begin rehearsals for "Hamlet," in which he will portray the title role. Ball will recreate the role performed at the Old Globe Theatre five summers ago. "Hamlet" will open July 29. "As You Like It," the second festival production directed by Allen Fletcher opens July 12.

Nightly performances begin at 8 p.m. Queen Elizabeth reigns over each evening performance in regal sixteenth century splendor. Traditional folk dancing madrigals are performed on the theatre lawn before the assembled audience.

An Elizabethan stage setting has been designed for the productions by Art Director Peggy Kellner Bruch. New costumes for all productions are also being created by the Old Globe Theatre designer.

Tickets for all three productions are now on sale. Patrons are advised to attend the festival early in the season to insure seats. The intimate Old Globe seats only 412 persons. Previous years' attendance indicates the festival will be sold out during the final weeks of the Shakespeare repertory, which closes Sept. 4.

SUMMER

Summer brings many freedoms. We enjoy these and we should use them to our best advantages. However, summer is the time when weeds take over the garden, if they are not watched. Summer becomes for many folks the time when the bad habit of slipping in faithful church attendance chokes out the spiritual life. Keep the highest purpose out front.

BIKE FOR TWO — Ingenuity, hard work and $40 turned out this tandem bicycle. Bruce Hamilton, 14, in front, and Mark Hunter, also 14, built the bike in the shop at Hunter's Nursery, owned by Marks father. The boys bought an old bicycle for $5 and an old bike frame for $1. Then they had to spend another $36 for new seats, brakes, sprockets, chains, etc. But they already have been offered $85 for the tandem. "Maybe we'll go into business," said Bruce. "Ugh!" said Mark, who had to do the welding. Both boys were graduated last week from Lemon Grove junior high. Do they plan to ride the bike to high school next year? "No," says Bruce; "I'll be going to Helix high and Mark will attend Mt. Miguel. The bike is long, but not that long." —Staff Photo

Milk Price Increase Asked by Milk Men

Residents in this area may be paying more for their milk in the near future.

But they will have a chance to offer their opinions before "sentence" is pronounced.

San Diego County milk producers have asked the state department of agriculture to increase the minimum prices officially established in the area.

The department will hold a public hearing on July 8 in the San Diego board of education auditorium, beginning at 10 a.m.

Distributors, in their petition for the hearing addressed to State Director of Agriculture William E. Warne, claim that higher labor and distribution costs justify an increase in minimum prices.

At present, milk consumers in the San Diego County Marketing Area are paying minimum prices of 23 cents per quart for milk purchased in stores, and 24 cents per quart for milk delivered to homes.

Distributors also have asked the department to set minimum prices on nonfat milk and on cream. Present schedules of minimum prices do not include those two commodities.

In response to their requests, the department proposes to establish minimum prices for half-and-half at 25½ cents per pint at stores, and 28 cents per pint delivered to homes. In addition, the department proposal would establish the minimum prices for nonfat milk at 16 cents per quart in stores and 20 cents per quart delivered to homes.

In requesting minimum prices for nonfat milk and cream, the industry representatives said that below-cost sales of these items made by some distributors in an effort to gain milk customers have created an unstable market situation.

The department will consider any proposal or pertinent information submitted at the hearing by persons affected by minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices for milk, cream or nonfat milk in the San Diego County Marketing Area.

Grove Schools Summer Recreation Planned for Diversification

Beginning next Monday, the summer recreation program at Lemon Grove schools presents a diversified program for children seven years or older. It will operate through August 5, with activities scheduled at six sites daily.

Monterey Heights and Palm Junior High, which includes the Mount Vernon students, will hold sponsored "classes" Monday through Thursday under the direction of Joseph Papin. Activities are from 9:30 to 1 at Monterey Heights and from 1:30 to 4 at Palm.

The program at the Lemon Grove Junior High, which includes Golden Avenue students, will operate Monday through Thursdays from 10 to 4 under the supervision of Ben Seiler, who is director for the entire district program. Keith Richard and Bill Poschman will direct a "Little Theater" group at the junior high daily through Saturday, excepting Fridays, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Vista La Mesa's program, under the supervision of Jack Thomas, will be from 9:30 to 12:30 each day through Thursdays; San Miguel, also under his direction, will offer recreational opportunities from 1 to 4. At San Altos, George Starkey will assist the program from 1 to 4.

A combined recreational activity is planned for Fridays. With the exception of the final picnic, all combined activities, including some parties on the bay, will be limited to children 10 years or older. The August 5 outing will be for those seven to ten years old.

All craft activities will be scheduled at specific times daily. The program offers water paints, table tennis, tether ball, basketball, hand ball, jigsaw puzzles, table games, hopscotch, checkers, carroms, marbles, jump rope, kick ball, soft ball, and model building, plus additional craft classes.

Grove Firemen Get 5% Raises

The commissioners of the Lemon Grove Fire Department approved a budget for $102,000 for the coming fiscal year at the district's regular monthly meeting last week.

Commissioners said the budget would not increase the fire district tax rate which is 58 cents for each $100 of assessed valuation this year.

Included in the budget is a blanket five per cent increase for the district's 14 firemen. The commission will hold a special meeting June 28 to consider the district's insurance program and to begin a study of the men's request for a retirement fund.

V. J. Dorman was again named legal counsel for the district for the coming year.

Tom Parsons presides at the commissioners' meetings.

Bob Turnbull Cast as Student In Disney Film

Lemon Grove actor-columnist Bob Turnbull has been cast by Walt Disney in his feature film, "The Absent Minded Professor," now before the cameras.

Turnbull portrays a young college student in the comedy that co-stars Fred MacMurray and Nancy Olson.

It is the story of a college prof who forgets little things like his wedding day, his children, the school where he teaches, etc., but still can invent an anti-gravity beam, the highlight of the film.

Dance Recitals Big Success, Says Teacher

Mrs. C. V. (Jean) Eskridge, entertainment chairman for the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce and owner and teacher of Jean's Dance Studio, reported that the two recent recitals, sponsored by the C of C, were a huge success.

Money from the first recital, n the amount of $61, was turned over to the S. V. Chamber to be added to its "Abode Fund", which goes toward the restoration of the old Bancroft Ranch House. Money, in the amount of $65, from the second recital will be turned over to the Lemon Grove-Valley Pony League, when the Chamber meets Monday night in the Chamber of Commerce hall, 9050 Memory Ln.

Awards were made to the children selling the most tickets for the recitals. For the first recital it was Theresa Wagner, first place; Carolyn Mace, second place; and Jerolyn Klark, third place. For the second recital, first place was a tie between Linda Conray and Bobby Danner; second place to Janice Driggers; and third place to Linda Norton.

Several of the girls in the recitals will be dancing Saturday at Del Mar Fair.

Writers Club Slates Meeting

A workshop will be the main order of business of the La Mesa Writers club, when that group meets Monday at 1 p.m. in the Porter Park hall, La Mesa. The subject for the workshop will be suggested by a non-member, sealed in an envelope and opened at the meeting.

ASSESSMENT OK

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Assessments for an $11,000 sewer project in the North Costa Bella Street area of Lemon Grove were approved last Wednesday by the County Board of Supervisors. The action was taken over the protest of two property owners, Roy Nielson and Walter Moore. Both said the assessments should have been based on street frontage and not on area.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Baker cut their wedding cake.

Barbara Starman Wed To Winfield S. Baker

Miss Barbara J. Starman became the bride of Mr. Winfield S. Baker on June 11 in St. John of the Cross Church. Miss Starman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Starman, 1110 Stone Ridge Dr., Spring Valley, and Mr. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Baker, 1005 51st St., San Diego, were united in a double-ring ceremony.

The maid of honor was Miss Velma Starman, sister of the bride. Mary Ann Mullis was the bridesmaid.

William Starman, brother of the bride, served as best man, and Carl Brown, brother-in-law of the groom, was usher.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the home of the bride.

The former Miss Starman is a graduate of Mt. Miguel.

The couple is residing in Olympia, Wash., where Mr. Baker is serving in the army.

Florence Roehl Services Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence H. Roehl, 75, of 2218 Morose, Lemon Grove, were held Monday at Greenwood Mortuary. Burial followed in Greenwood Memorial Park.

Mrs. Roehl, a native of New York, had lived in the county for six years. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. E. M Briggs, with whom she lived; by a brother in New Jersey and a sister in New York.

Break Through in Salaries Seen in County Decisions

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Another threat of break-through in the county's wage rates showed last week at the meeting of the County Board of Supervisors.

The board agreed to ask the Civil Service Commission to consider wage boosts sought for personnel in the assessor's office and for deputy coroners. These requests were submitted to the board in letters from department heads.

Dr. J. B. Askew, head of the public health department, who was in the board chamber on another matter, asked if he could make similar requests for professional persons on his staff. "We're being left behind in this," Askew declared.

Microbiologists, sanitarians and public health officers were those most affected, Askew said. He told the board the county is 25th in the state in the salaries it pays microbiologists; 18th for public health nurses and 15th for sanitarians. He said these wage scales make it difficult to compete for help.

The board agreed to submit the health department request to civil service.

Another salary action the board took resulted in a 15 per cent increase for Mason A. Bowen, the jury commissioner. The boost is to take place over three years, with a one-step increase, equal to 5 per cent, to be given each year.

An increase for Bowen was proposed to Supervisors by the judges, but the request was passed over at preliminary budget hearings.

Truth may be hard to ascertain, but the search warrants the attention of all individuals.

Helix Faculty Honors Two Retiring Teachers

Two retiring teachers were honored last week by the faculty of Helix high school. Lewis F. Smith, superintendent of the high school district, presented plaques to the retiring teachers in recognition of their service and fellow teachers presented them with gifts.

Mrs. Barrett came to the Grossmont high school District in 1938 as Miss Elizabeth Peters, and was at Grossmont high school until Helix was organized in 1951, when she went there to continue her counseling. She taught English and social studies and was appointed chairman of the social studies department which was to develop the present ninth grade, two-hour English-social studies course. She went into counseling and guidance in 1947 and did this work until 1955 when she took a sabbatical leave of one year, traveling to Europe and to England to study. She returned to teaching and has taught English-social studies at Helix until her retirement this year.

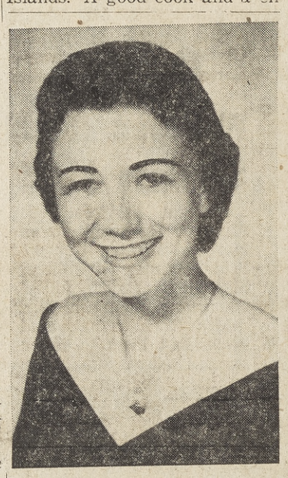
Mrs. Barrett took her undergraduate work at Earlham College in Richmond, Ind., and graduate work at the University of Southern California. She has been active in girls' club work and sponsored a Future Teachers Club for several years. In anticipation of leisure in her retirement, Mrs. Barrett has purchased the Great Books and plans to enroll in a Great Books course. She and her husband enjoy travel and are trying to decide on a trip for this fall. They're thinking about going to Hawaii and the Canary Islands. A good cook and an enthusiastic gardener, Mrs. Barrett has no worries about keeping busy.

Hogue has been with the high school district since 1944, and he, too, went to Helix when it opened in 1951. A mathematics teacher, he also sponsored bowling teams and assisted with track meets, having been a track man in his own school days. A native of Kansas, Hogue studied at Kansas State Teachers' College and Kansas University before beginning a period of 25 years in Kansas schools as teacher and administrator. He is a veteran of World War I, during which he was stationed in Belgium and in France.

Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett

Charles Hogue

Hogue sustained an eye injury recently, and when the eye is completely healed, he plans to make use of his real estate license. He and his wife, who live in La Mesa, are also planning to travel and to go fishing. They have a daughter at Newport Beach and two small grandsons, ages eight and five, so Hogue won't find retirement dull.



ENGAGED — Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Gross of 368 Encinitas Ave., Lomita Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Virvinia, to Lawrence Lipska, son of Mrs. Audrey Lipska (and the late Leo Lipska) of 8741 Lamar St., Spring Valley. Miss Gross is a graduate of Lincoln High School, San Diego, class of 1960. Mr. Lipska is a student at San Diego State College. No wedding date has been set.

'Breakthrough' Heralds New Life For Old Tires

A "breakthrough" in tire rubber technology—and the practical results now available to consumers—will change future tire buying habits of motorists who want premium tire performance, according to Norman Flannery, operator of one of Lemon Grove's leading tire-retreading firms. The new product responsible is actually a blending of two different types of rubber into one single tread rubber unit.

"The construction of this new tire tread material," Flannery said, "actually provides a softer, more resilient tire surface that absorbs road shock, while giving the shoulder portion of the tire a tougher, more rugged rubber which means greater support and extra resistance to the effects of weather."

The new man-made rubber product is marketed to the motoring public under the trade name "V-I-P" and is manufactured by a leading retread supplier under a recently developed special process which results in a single tread rubber unit with unique qualities not found in most new tires.

"Most people don't realize it, but 75 per cent of new tire costs is in the casing alone, and a properly treaded casing should be good for 100,000 miles," Flannery maintains.

"Today's technology has developed a tire casing that can take the punishment and far outlast those available 5 to 10 years ago," he says, and points out that fleet operators have proved it's a fallacy for motorists to think that because the tread is thin they need new tires, when actually a re-tread will safely and economically do the job.

Lemon Grove Tire Co. has installed the latest technical equipment for application of re-treads claimed to match the performance of top line new tires, in safety and performance.

A quality retread on a suitable casing, performed by a reliable re-treader interested in keeping and building his reputation, can be used with complete confidence in its safety, Flannery declared.

Grove Girl, Back from England, To Teach in Summer Theatre

Patricia Haworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Haworth of Lemon Grove will join the summer staff of San Diego Junior Theatre teaching acting and speech to the teenage division.

Miss Haworth is home visiting with her family after touring as an actress for two years with the English Theatre for Children—a branch of a touring organization called Mobile Theatre, Ltd. — which presents a large repertoire of plays for children and young people throughout England.

Determined to become an actress at the age of nine, after having previously nursed an ambition to become a Channel swimmer, Miss Haworth conceived the idea of attending a London drama school. Her family's emigration to Canada in 1948 reduced the possibility, but not the hope.

While in Canada, Miss Haworth received her academic background from the Toronto Conservatory and participated in as many theatrical activities as possible. This valuable training led to annual performances—for three consecutive years—at the Central Ontario Drama Festival and thence to the Earle Gray Players, a professional Shakespeare company well established in Toronto, graduating over three seasons to playing a number of the relatively few roles available to women in Shakespeare.

In 1953, at the age of 19, Miss Haworth returned to London and entered the Central School of Speech and Drama and proceeded on an extensive two-year course of training. In order to make all of this possible she lived on a "shoestring," taking a variety of jobs to keep her ambition alive. At the end of two years, her funds completely depleted, she came to California to join her parents, who had moved from Canada, with the intention of saving up to return to England and find work in the professional theatre.

Upon her return to England in 1958 she found—in the previously mentioned English Theatre for Children — a long sought theatrical niche.

San Diego Junior Theatre is sponsored by the Park and Recreation Department.

Avocado Trees Need Attention, Says Advisor

Avocado trees grafted within the last two or three years need careful attention if they are to develop into strong and well-shaped trees, comments University of California farm advisor Don Gustafson. Grafts grow vigorously on large trees and require support and training.

Grafts should be tied to stakes placed in the ground beside the tree trunk or nailed to the trunk. The stake should be sturdy and tall enough to permit full development of the graft. Re-tie the graft every two to three weeks during its growth to prevent girdling by the string.

Selecting the one graft which will be kept to make the new tree is important. Pick the most vigorous growing one and cut off the remaining grafts. After the final graft has been selected, the stump should be cut on the diagonal, from the graft downward across the stump. This prevents moisture from collecting and promotes healing. Paint stump with a black asphaltum material. If the graft grows too tall, cut back the top to encourage side branching. This will result in a stronger framework. Retain as much foliage on the grafts as possible during the early development years.

To prevent wood rotting in the tree stump, check the tree seal periodically. If it is checking, cracking and drying out, re-treat with new material.

MONEY

Odd and curious monies and other strange media of exchange will become an attractive and educational exhibit at the San Diego County Fair in Del Mar June 24 through July 4 where the San Diego County Inter-Club Numismatic Council will compete for special ribbons.

Valley Chamber Plans Fete For Anniversary

The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce board of directors has voted to have a "Spring Valley Day" about the middle of October, that being the time the Chamber will celebrate its 25th anniversary.

Mrs. Robert (Rosarie) Graham has been named general chairman. She said that she and a committee will be meeting soon to make plans for the celebration. She and her committee will welcome any help and suggestions, she said.

In other business the board voted to have a second business and professional persons' luncheon, in the Chamber of Commerce hall, the latter part of July. Chet Smith, chamber program chairman, said he would get a chairman for the luncheon, who will arrange for a speaker. The mothers of Boy Scout Troop and Post 47, are to handle the cooking and serving of the luncheon, Mrs. Reon Rauscher said. The first luncheon, held in May, was a success, with 60 persons attending.

The board voted to eliminate this year's regular meetings during the months of July and August. The board meeting will be held as usual.

WHAT'S DOING

Here's one way to go from coast to coast and not leave town. This young lady will soon call lots of places every day on her new job as a long distance operator. Here she's at a practice switchboard, training with a phone woman who learned the job in this way too. Other new people starting out in the telephone business will get training for different jobs—and get paid while learning. It's the first step in helping them build fine careers for themselves. And, of course, good training like this means good service for you.

Planning to move? It's a good time to get that extension phone you've been thinking about. At no extra installation charge, we'll put in an extension phone — or two or three — when we install your new service. So if you'd like to start planning where you'd like those new phones, why not call your service representative at the telephone office, or talk to your telephone service man.

PHONE FAIR
JUNE 24 through JULY 4th

The nationwide dialing exhibit, along with many other interesting exhibits and films, will make your visit to "Phone-Fair" an interesting one. So we hope to see you at the Fair where you may be one of the lucky ones to win a free long distance call.

Grove Liquor Robbed of $566

The Grove liquor store, 724 Broadway, was robbed of $56 by a masked bandit, early Saturday morning. A clerk was in the store at the time, and two teenage boys who walked in to buy milk were unaware that a robbery was in progress.

The clerk, Nicholas Agrusa of 2540 Calle Quebrada, was in the cooler when he saw a man walk through the side door. He started toward the front but the man met him in the door of the back room and demanded "OK, buddy, this is it. Put all the money in the bag."

The bandit, wearing a white handkerchief as a mask, hid in the back room while the clerk went to the cash register. At this time the two boys walked in and Agrusa directed them to a cooler at the front of the store. When Agrusa had put the money in a bag, the bandit rushed from the back room, grabbed the bag and fled.

L.G. Girl Takes Awards At State

A Lemon Grove young lady, Miss Eleanor Chassy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Chassy, 3288 Main st., became one of the youngest students to be graduated "with honors" at San Diego State College. She is 19.

Miss Chassy also earned an award of "distinction" in general studies. She is a Political Science major and an Economics minor and won a "first" and several "superiors" in intercollegiate forensics competition during the year.

She is a member of Cetza, a woman's service organization, and Pi Kappa Delta, an honorary forensics organization. She was secretary of the college's pre-legal society.

Her mother and her brother also attended State during the academic year. Mrs. Chassy is working toward a degree in life sciences. Her brother, Bruce, a junior is a chemistry major. Both she and her brother were on the college's debate squad.

Junior High Students Win Top Awards

Judy Ann Grubb and Donald Lawrence, eighth grade graduating students at Lemon Grove Junior High, won the coveted scholarship awards at the graduation ceremonies last Thursday evening. The awards are made annually by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis club in the form of $25 government saving bonds to the outstaanding scholars of the class.

Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Grubb of 7815 Longdale Drive, boasted a straight "A" record in all subjects for her two years at the junior high. Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hall of 1868 Primera, also had a perfect "A" record during his two years of attendance.

Outstanding citizenship awards went to Clara M. Folk and James Arsenault of the graduating class of 433 students. A perpetual cup, established here in 1946, will be inscribed with their names. Clara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Folk of 1606 Bakersfield in Lemon Grove. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Arsenault of 2611 Sheri Lane. Both students earned straight "A" records in citizenship for many years and both are outstanding scholars. Awards were made by S. K. Solleder, assistant superintendent, and H. W. Buckner, member of the Lemon Grove school board.

Telephone Company Names New Manager

Mansfield has made his home in La Mesa since 1949. He has been in telephone work since 1942 and has held assignments as manager in Riverside and San Diego.

He began his telephone career in San Diego as an equipment man in the company's Hillcrest office. He has been a member of the Lions Club and district vice chairman in the Boy Scouts of America.

PROCESSED MILK STORAGE

The processed forms of milk, evaporated, condensed and dry milk solids, can all be safely stored on a cupboard shelf. However, cans of evaporated or condensed milk should be refrigerated after opening. Dry milk solids in tightly covered containers will keep well at room temperature for several months.

ADDED VALUE

Value added to California by increased industrial growth has jumped from less than $1½ billion in 1940 to more than $12 billion today, says the Water Facts Library. Investments in new and expanded industrial plants have averaged from a quarter of a billion dollars to $1 billion annually since 1950.

Five Real Hard Workers Win First Class Rank

First Class Rank badges were presented recently to Georgina Grimaldi, Paulette Froetscher, Jacquelin Musgrave and Marjorie Shelby, Girl Scouts of Intermediate Troop 1272 of Lemon Grove, by Mrs. Virginia McClintock at an evening Court of Awards ceremony at San Altos School auditorium.

To become a First Class Scout means that the Girl Scout has skills in many fields and has become proficient in one special field. She is willing and prepared to use her knowledge to help others. Ordinarily it takes two years to complete the First Class rank. Some of the Scouts fulfilled their requirements in 14 months. Besides earning 10 or more proficiency badges, the Girl Scouts planned, demonstrated, and instructed Tenderfoot requirements for Brownie Troop 945, and assisted as instructors and judges at Neighborhood Outdoor Day.

They have helped with the San Altos School library program, organized supervised play periods in their neighborhoods, assisted at churches of their own denomination, helped in the kindergarten, planted shrubbery, participated in the annual Scout cookie sales, contributed gifts and money to welfare projects.

Paulette Froetscher has been a scout for five years. She has earned 15 proficiency badges, majoring in the arts and crafts field. Her badges are: Arts—Dabbler, Drawing and Painting, Interior Decorating, Photography, and Wood; Out-of-Doors—Birds, Tree, Star, Salt Water Life, and Campcraft; Citizens Here and Abroad field—My Community, World Gifts, and World Trefoil; Your Home field—Cook and Homemaker.

Georgina Grimaldi has been a scout for six years. She has earned 22 badges, specializing in the You and Your Home field. Her badges are: You and Your Home—Animal Raiser, Dairying, Truck Gardener, Home Gardener, Child Care, Cook and Housekeeper; Art field—Dabbler, Drawing and Painting, Folk Dancing, and Needlecraft; Out-of-Doors—Adventurer, Backyard Camper, Campcraft, Outdoor Cook, Cat and Dog, Games, Bird, Tree, and Skating; Citizens Here and Abroad—My Troop and Speaker.

Jacquelin Musgrave has been a scout for four years. She has earned 15 badges and has specialized in the Out-of-Doors field. Her badges are: Out-of-Doors—Adventurer, Campcraft, Outdoor Cook, Backyard Camper, Games, Bird, Tree, and Salt Water Life; Art field—Dabbler, and Drawing and Painting; Citizens Here and Abroad—My Troop and My Community; You and Your Home—Child Care, Cook and Housekeeper.

Marjorie Shelby has been in scouting for five years. She has earned 20 badges specializing in the Nature field in Fun in the Out-of-Doors. Her badges are: Out-of-Doors—Campcraft, Outdoor Cook, Backyard Camper, Games, Salt Water Life, Cat and Dog, Insect, Rambler, Reptile and Amphibian, and Tree; Art field—Dabbler, Drawing and Painting, Storyteller, and Reader; Citizens Here and Abroad—Traveler, World Trefoil and World Neighbor; You and Your Home field—Child Care, Cook, and Housekeeper.

Mrs. Frances W. Musgrave is leader of Troop 1272.

Scout News

Troop 322 of Lemon Grove, sponsored by VFW Post 2082, went camping to the Laguna recreation grounds, Camp Buttercup, on June 18 and 19.

Scoutmaster H. C. Stubbs and assistants W. F. McCollum and R. Wilbur along with 20 Boy Scouts and eight dads, participated in compass reading, map making, signaling and Tenderfoot requirements.

Nightfall found Troop 322 telling tales and singing around a big campfire. Mr. Bolt of the Rangers took several pictures of the boys to be published in the American Foresters magazine. The evening was topped off by a snipe hunt. As usual, no snipes were caught.

The following patrols took part in the campout: Digiemos patrol, George and Bobby Holland; Panther patrol, George Holderbach, Edwin Jenkins, Dick Graham and Greg Fohner; Pioneer patrol, Neil Good, Larry Wilbur, Henry Strangfeld, Mike Dirickson, Eugene Kraszewski and Richard Kraszewski;

Snake patrol, Neil Gagian and Randy Erickson, and Ronald Robertson, a Cub Scout; Wolf patrol, Gary Mills and Roy Lehton; Rebel patrol, Dennis McCollum, Bob Wilbur and Tom Stubbs; Pirate patrol (Dads), H. Everyone is invited to open house at the three Girl Scout camps in the Cuyamacas on June 26, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Parents and girls will meet camp staff, see the camp units in which the girls will live, and see model camp units being demonstrated by different-aged girls. Coffee, punch and cookies will be served by the Girl Scout camp committee.

Three hundred eager young campers will be on their way to adventure, fun, and the learning of new skills on June 28.

Only a few spaces are left for this first season. All girls are welcome to attend, according to Miss Bettie Brockman, director of camping for the Girl Scout council. Four 5-day sessions are scheduled for girls from 7 to 9 years of age, and four 12-day sessions for girls 10 to 13.

Beginning July 25, there will be two 12-day sessions for old or girls, including a pack trip and other exciting programs.

There will be fun for the whole family at Girl Scout Camp Shimmering Pines. Five-day sessions begin July 25. Weekend sessions begin July 29. There will be real camping and swimming, and campfire programs for dads, mother and small fry.

Brochures and registration forms may be secured at Girl Scout Headquarters, 1231 Upas, San Diego 3, or phone CY 8-8391.

ZEnith 1-2000 Brings Patrol, Says Local Chief

ZEnith 1-2000 is the statewide, toll-free telephone number of the California Highway Patrol but it is to be used only for reporting a traffic accident or some other kind of traffic emergency, R. Gautsche, commander of the San Diego County unit of the California Highway Patrol, said this week.

"This special telephone number has been assigned to the California Highway Patrol for the past six years and is a quick and sure way of contacting the Patrol when a traffic emergency arises," R. Gautsche continued.

"Simply dial the operator, ask for ZEnith 1-2000 and tell her you want to report a traffic emergency. The operator will then immediately connect you with the nearest California Highway Patrol office."

Lions Name John Elliott As President

John F. Elliott, Spring Valley realtor, living at 4118 Calavo Dr., Homelands, was installed as president of the Spring Valley Lions Club, in impressive ceremonies held at the Singing Hills Country Club, June 16. Installing officer was Dr. Don Erickson, past president of the El Cajon Lions and now deputy governor-elect of the Lions.

Other officers installed were: first vice president, Daniel Swing (S. V. contractor); second vice president, Ray Traber, (with Robinson-Green Plumbing Co.); third vice president, Sidney Kent, physical therapist; secretary, Dr. Russell Love (optometrist); treasurer, Les Hansen (furniture store owner); tail twister, Bob Todd (roofing business); and Lion tamer, Dale Woods (service station owner).

Special visitors were Dr. Erickson and wife; Stan Totten (past president of the S. V. Lions and now zone chairman of the South-East region); George Krueger of Louisa Dr., Homelands; Ray Gandara, CDO Shoe Repair; and Dr. Granville Riddell's son.

Future plans of the club include an installation dance to be held in July. The club will have a car wash Saturday near Mel's Rootbeer stand on Campo Rd. A $1 donation will be taken for each car washed. Proceeds will go into the club's fund for sight conservation and for community projects.

Local Delegates To Attend Teacher Convention

Lemon Grove schools will be well-represented at the National Education Association Delegate Convention later this month in Los Angeles when that largest group of professional people meet for its annual nation-wide convention. Over 25,000 delegates and visitors are expected to gather in California from June 26 through July 1 for the week's activities.

Jack Lemmer, president of the local Lemon Grove teachers association, is the official delegate from that group. His wife, Margaret Lemmer, will attend as a delegate of the California Teachers Association. John Winterhouse, Lemon Grove junior high teacher, will be an official representative of the San Diego County Teachers Association, an organization of which he was recently elected president. S. K. Solleder, assistant superintendent, will also attend the convention as a county delegate.

Meeting in the Shrine Auditorium and the Sports Arena, the NEA delegates will discuss and vote on national policies for the profession. Speakers scheduled for general assemblies include Senator Hubert Humphrey, Senator Sherman Cooper, United Nations correspondent Pauline Frederick, and Art Linkletter.

Spring Valley Fire Calls

The Spring Valley fire department was busy with two ambulance runs and six grass fires during the past week.

June 10, ambulance run to 975 Sweetwater Ave. Mrs. Vera Goodwin, 58, was taken to County hospital with a possible stroke.

June 14, George Rank, 39, of 9035 Joan St., South Spring Valley, was taken to Grossmont hospital, after neighbors said they found him in his garage apparently overcome with monoxide gas. The motor of his car had been running and he had possibly been working on the car motor.

The six grass fire runs were: June 8 at Jamacha Rd., near Skyline; June 10 at the east end of Ildica. A truck backing in the yard had broken a 220 volt line, and the shorted wire had ignited nearby grass; three on June 11, the first being at 3219 Calavo Dr., the second at 3404 Trophy Dr., Brookside, and the third near the S. V. fire district boundary in South Spring Valley, where 25 acres were burned. This was a standby call; and June 14 on Don Pico Rd., where two five year old boys started the fire with matches.

Junior Livestock Sale Set for County Fair

DEL MAR—Plenty of spirited bidding is expected to be generated at the junior livestock auction at the County Fair here June 24 through July 4.

The sale of fat beef, lamb and swine will get under way at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, June 29, in the exposition's main judging ring. There will be bleacher seats for bidders and spectators.

This will be one of the biggest sales in history of the annual event with approximately 400 animals belonging to FFA and 4-H exhibitors going on the block.

Last year, 273 animals were auctioned for a record of $53,147.22 in total sales. Kathleen Toft, 10, of Santee 4-H Club, banked $503.70 when her Shropshire lamb brought a record-breaking $5 a pound. John Gregory, 14, of Dulzura 4-H Club, sold his 184-pound Berkshire hog for a record $1.25 a pound. Betty Stockalper, 15, Bonita 4-H Club, sold her fat Hereford steer for $1,389.88 cash.

Buyers of these animals were meat packers, restaurants and hotels, business firms and individuals. Junior livestock exhibitors usually put money earned from their auction sales back into other livestock projects.

Dee Duncan of National City will be heading the list of well-known auctioneers who, with the ringmen, will be donating their time to the junior sale. Other auctioneers are Tom Caldwell of Ontario, Kenneth Gorham of Ramona, Jim Downing of San Marcos along with D. H. Shelton Sr. and Jim Shelton, a father-and-son team.

Ringmen will be Jim Brannon of Santee, F. M. Cary of El Cajon and Ray Morris of El Centro.

How's this for advertising the teaching profession as a career for young women: Two Avondale teachers, Miss Marion Fitch, a 1st grade teacher, and Miss Joan Christophersen, a 6th grade teacher, are to be wed this summer. Miss Fitch will return to Avondale in Sept., but not Miss Christopherson. God speed to you both.

It Could Be You

Plans are being made by the Avondale PTA for a community bus excursion to Hollywood on August 17.

Leaving Avondale at 7:30 a.m., the first stop will be Griffith Park, then to the Planetarium and Grauman's Chinese Theatre. A stop at Farmer's Market for lunch will precede the feature of the day, the TV program, It Could Be You. Bess Maguire, in charge of plans for the day, says that the program will be completely built around those coming on this tour. After the show, there will be a trip to the Hollywood Bowl, and then to Knottsberry Farm for dinner. They will arrive home around 10:30 p.m., after a full and pleasant day.

Reservations must be in by July 25, and remember, the sooner your name is on the list, the better chance you will have for surprises and prizes. The charge is $6.00 which includes everything but meals. To reserve your place for this day of fun call either HO 9-6876, HO 3-6926, or HO 3-0616.

Little League News

The Spring Valley Little League officially opened its season on June 11th, and most afternoons at Avondale School, you can find the boys hard at work providing an outlet for their spectator-parents. Everyone's welcome at these games, free of charge, so go down and join the excitement.

Donations for equipment and uniforms needed have been coming in from such sources as the C Street Florists of San Diego and R. E. Miles, Realtors of Spring Valley. A concession stand was provided by Mr. Ray Turner. Now with news of a playing field imminent, plans are being made for bleechers, fences, etc., so if you have wood, time, ability, or just need exercise, get in touch with Jim Jordan at HO 3-0616.

Meet Your Neighbors

Meet Bess and Don Maguire. They have four children, twin daughters of 10, a daughter of 5, and a son of 4. They have lived in Spring Valley Estates for a year.

Bess was born in Kentucky, and moved to San Diego 10 years ago. She is one of those women who believes that "Action Speaks Louder Than Words." She was Welfare chairman for the Avondale PTA, worked as a room mother, served at the Cake and Gift Sale, the Family Day Outing, at the Polio Clinic, babysat for PTA meetings, Vice President for the PTA, and is now busily engaged in making arrangements for the Hollywood Bus Trip.

Don was born in Iowa, and has been in San Diego for 12 years. He works as a machinist at Convair, and helped with the Family Day at Avondale. His most difficult job is making Bess reealize that there is nothing wrong with sitting and watching others work once in a while. Next time you participate in any of Avondale's community fun days, look for the tall, slender woman who is the quietest and busiest. That'll be our Bess.
